Dear Paul,

What's new and how's life in New York City? Barbara gave me your address at Summer Camp in Aspen, Colorado and asked me to write you. Barbara and I were roommates for almost one month last June.My full name is Patricia Simon, but my friends call me Patty.Call me Patty, ok!? Barbara said that you're 18 years old and that you and your friends have a band in New York. That's cool! What's the name of your band? I love to listen to music, especially Rock and Roll. How about you? By the way, I will turn 18 in December, and you?

Have you been to California? I live in a small city near San Diego called Del Mar. It's pretty small but it's beautiful. Before moving to Del Mar we lived in Berkeley, just outside San Francisco. My father is a university Professor. He teaches Psychology at the University of California in San Diego (U.C.S.D.) Paul, I hope you have time to write. Good luck with your band, and take care!

Your friend, Patty

P.S. Send me a picture, if you can.

Dear Patty,

What's new? Thanks for the picture. Your hair is very pretty. I've always liked long hair. You said that you'd like to be a stewardess. That's great! You look like a stewardess too. Are there many Vocational Schools in California to study to be a stewardess? Is it expensive? If you love traveling that would be a great job.

Oh, by the way, I don't like blood either, but I've wanted to be a dentist since grade school. You asked about my family. I've got one sister and one brother. My sister Kathy is married and she's a housewife. My brother Mike is an accountant. I'm the youngest in our family. My father is an accountant too. Mike and my father have a small office near our house. They do a lot of accounting and income tax at home and at their office.

Patty, is there a good Dental School on the west coast? If there is would you send me some information about the school? This is going to be a short letter. Our band is playing in a small restaurant called Jimba's every Saturday night, so I've got to go. Thanks again for the picture. You're cute!

Dear Paul,

I loved your letter! It took about one week to get here. I was at the beach all day long on Saturday with a few friends and when I got home it was on the kitchen table. How was your performance on Saturday night? Was there a big crowd? If you have time, send me a CD of your band, I'd love to hear you sing. Paul, guess what happened on the way to the beach on Saturday!? My sister Michelle was driving my father's van (she's sixteen and she received her driver's license in March) and a policeman pulled us over for speeding. He looked at Michelle and said, "What's the rush? The beach isn't going anywhere!" Can you believe it!? Oh, I'm sending you an application form and a pamphlet from the University of California at Los Angeles (U.C.L.A.) Dental School.

I hope it's helpful! If you want me to send you more information about Dental Schools, just ask. A good friend is a treasure! See ya!

Dear Paul! What's up in New York City? Why don't you come to California in July? The weather is great and the beach is beautiful in the Summer. Do you know how to surf? I used to surf a little when I was 15 years old. By the way, my father said that Del Mar is about 200 miles from Phoenix. You can rent a car and drive here in about 4 hours. My father has a colleague who is the Dean of Chemistry at U.C.S.D. and he said that the University doesn't have a Dental Program yet. However, U.C.L.A. has an excellent Dental Program. Why don't you think about studying at U.C.L.A. instead of Cornell University? Before I forget, I don't drive like my sister. I drive better than her. Let me know if you're coming to beautiful Del Mar. A big hug! Patty.

Dear Patty,

Good news! I talked to my uncle Joe in Phoenix yesterday and he said I was welcome to visit in July. So, we will probably meet in the Summer. No, I don't know how to surf but I'm willing to learn. If you teach me to surf, I will teach you to sing Rock and Roll!

My band, "Forbidden Fruit" was invited to play in Central Park in September. There will be about fifty bands and the Festival is called "Rock in the Park". It's free so they are expecting more than 10.000 people. The Festival will last one week.

Why don't you come? Talk to your parents. I live with my parents but I have my own car and I can show you the Village, Soho, the Statue of Liberty, Broadway and other places. Patty, I'm thinking about visiting U.C.L.A. in July. See you in the Summer.

Paul.

Dear Paul,

How's it going?! You're not going to believe it but I'm writing you from the hospital in San Diego, California. Don't worry, I'm fine. I was driving my mother's car near Balboa Park in San Diego this morning and another car ran a stop sign and hit the side of my car. Well, it was his fault. He got a ticket and I got a broken arm!

I'm here at the hospital and the doctor put a cast on my arm. Right now I'm in the waiting room and the pharmacist is filling a prescription for me.

Luckily I broke my left arm so I can still write. The doctor says I will wear this cast for about two months. Well, at least I will take off the cast before Summer starts and before you arrive in July.

Let me know when you are coming to visit.

Good Rocking!

I worked as a mailman for a short time. However, I am afraid of dogs and I had a lot of trouble. One day I tried to deliver some letters to a big house. I started to open the gate and all of a sudden a huge dog ran toward me. It growled and barked at me, so I threw the letters over the fence. The dog picked them up and carried them into the house. The dog was a better mailman than I was!

TEXT 12

It rained a lot last Winter and the little stream near our house turned into a big river. It overflowed and flooded all the fields around our house. Luckily, the water did not reach any of the houses in our area, but the flood washed away our beautiful wooden bridge. The bridge was more than forty years old and we were sorry to lose it. We are building a new one now, but it will never be the same.

Summary

1. When did the little stream near your house become a big river?
2. What did it do to the fields all around your house?
3. Did the water reach any of the houses in your area or not?
4. What happened to your old wooden bridge?
5. What are you doing now?

"Did you buy anything overseas?" asked the Customs officer.
"Just a few small souvenirs," answered the lady. "I didn't buy anything of value."
"Would you open this suitcase, please?" asked the officer.
"Of course," said the lady, "but it's only full of dirty clothes."
"That doesn't matter," replied the officer. "I'm used to that."
At that moment, the lady's daughter, a little girl of five, said, "Oh, be careful! Don't touch my mommy's old blue coat! Her new gold watch is in the pocket. You might break it!"

Summary

1. Did the lady tell the Customs officer a lie, or did she tell him the truth?
2. Did she say, "I didn't buy anything of value," or did she say "I bought something valuable"?
3. Did the officer want her to open the suitcase or not?

The children next door often play baseball in the yard and sometimes break my bedroom window. Last Saturday afternoon I stayed at home and watched TV. After a while, I closed my eyes and went to sleep. A sound at the door made me wake up suddenly. A little boy appeared at the door. “Not one of my windows again!” I said. “Oh no!” answered the boy. “Your window was open this time and our ball is in your bedroom. Can we get it, please?”

Summary

1. Where do the children next door often play baseball?
2. What do they sometimes break?
3. Where did you spend the afternoon last Saturday?
4. Who came to the door?
5. What did he want to do?
6. Where was it?
7. Did they break your window this time or not?

TEXT 15

Mrs. Mills often spends too much on clothes. She does not need new clothes, but she loves buying them. Yesterday she saw a beautiful coat in a store window. She went in and tried it on. It was just the right size, but it was very expensive. Mrs. Mills did not have enough money with her, so she had it charged on her credit card. Then she took the coat home and showed it to her husband. After that, she showed him the sales slip for $400. He liked the coat very much, but he didn't like the price!

Summary

1. Does Mrs. Mills often waste money on clothes or not?
2. What did she see in a store window yesterday?
3. Was it too small, too large or just the right size?
4. Did Mrs. Mills charge the coat to her account, or did she pay cash for it?
5. Did she leave the coat in the store, or did she take it home and show it to her husband?
6. Did he like the price or not?
7. How much did the coat cost?

TEXT 16

There was a great deal of excitement in town the other day. A horse got out of a field and came into town on its own. It walked across the school grounds and through several busy streets. Then it lay down in the middle of Main Street opposite the post office. All traffic stopped. Quite a few people tried to lead it away, but no one could move it. Finally a farmer appeared. He called to it. It got up and he led it away.

Summary

1. What caused a lot of excitement in town the other day?
2. Where did it go?
3. Where did it lie down?
4. Could anyone move it or not?
5. Who led it away finally?

It was very dark. Two men were making their way slowly through the woods. Snow was lying on the ground and a cold wind was blowing. They noticed a light through the trees and soon came to a cabin. An old man immediately invited them to come in. He seemed to be a strange fellow, but he spoke kindly and offered them hot soup and bread. The men remained there until morning. Then the old man led them to the nearest town, but he would not accept any money for his help.

Summary

1. Where were two men walking one cold, dark night?
2. What did they find?
3. Who lived there?
4. Did he ask them in or did he tell them to go away?
5. Did he give them a simple meal, or did he give them nothing at all?
6. Did the men stay there all night, or did they leave immediately?

TEXT 20

Our old church building was in very bad condition. So last March we decided to build a new one at the top of a hill just south of town. We used many different kinds of materials. We built the walls of stone and glass, and the heavy doors of wood and metal. From the front steps of the church, there is a wonderful view. You can see the town and the entire countryside for miles around. People from all parts of the state visit the church. It is such an interesting structure.

Summary

1. When did you decide to build a new church?
2. Did you build it at the top of the hill, or did you build it at the foot of the hill?
3. Did you use only stone or many different materials?
4. Is there a good view or a poor view of the town and countryside from the top?
